DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Applicant has amended the claims to recite, in claim 1, "fumigation interval," "sealing means," in claim 2, "an additional shipping container," in claim 13, "sealing said fumigant" and "for an interval of time," in claims 21-23 "actuable valve" and "perimeter seal." Specification basis for these phrases was not given nor was it found.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Again, claims 1 and 13 are indefinite because the scope of the phrase "conventional shipping container" is unknown. While applicants responded to the instant rejection by supplying information on the scope of "export shipping containers," this is not necessarily the same as the rejected phrase.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 1-4, 7-9, 11-14, 16-18 and 20-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Smithyman et al. (U.S. Pat. No. 6,047,497) ("Smithyman") for the reason set forth in the last Office action.

Figure 1 shows valve 64 which is considered actuable and because the disclosed container is able to be sealed tightly, it inherently possesses a perimeter seal.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Art Unit: 1761

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 5, 6, 10, 15 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Smithyman in view of Blatchford (Australian Pat. No. 32801/95) for the reason set forth in the last Office action.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 05/03/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that the prior art operates in an entirely different manner. It is first noted, with respect to the apparatus claims, any process limitations found therein are given no patentable weight as they are considered to merely embody an intended use. With respect to the process claims, any remarks concerning the prior art's mixing of the phosphine gas with other gases is given no weight as the instant claims do not exclude such mixing.

Applicant also states that the prior art patent teaches the recycling of phosphine during the fumigation step. The instant process claims do not exclude this. An analysis of process claim 13 discloses that the fumigation chamber is "defined in part" by the shipping container. Therefore, the fumigation chamber is not limited to the shipping container but can include a broad range of other apparatus. It is noted that applicant does not disclose sealing off the fumigant to the container.

Applicant argues that the patent does not disclose sealing means for the extractions means, i.e., the scrubber. Figure 1 of the patent clearly shows valve 64.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
